

SNDT Women's University
1, Nathibai Thackersey Road,
Mumbai 400020

Name of the course

Master of Science in Nursing

Level (P.G. Degree/Degree/ P.G. Diploma/ Diploma/ Certificate)

M.Sc. Nursing – P.G. Programme

Duration of course

M.Sc. Nursing – 2 years

Eligibility

M.Sc. Nursing:

- B.Sc. Nursing or P.C.B.Sc. Nursing passed with 55% marks at first attempt.
- Minimum 1 year clinical area.

Annual Intake

M.Sc. Nursing - 15

Medium of Instruction

English

Admission procedure

Entrance Examination

Personal Interview

Future Career Prospects

M.Sc. Nursing - Work as a Registered Nurse or Tutor etc.

Approx. Fee

M.Sc. Nursing – Rs.52,000/-

Whether offered thr' Distance mode

No

Course Objectives

The objective of the M.Sc. Nursing Programme is to prepare students who will demonstrate

- a. Ability to give quality care to patients in the clinical area (both in general and specialized areas) based in comprehensive problem solving approach.
- b. Ability to function as effective educators and managers with the application of modern concepts and technology.
- c. Leadership abilities to initiate and bring about changes in all areas of nursing practice.
- d. Ability to critically evaluate and use the findings of research for better practices and to engage in research activities.
- e. Interest in continuing education and contribute to professional advancement.
- f. Ability to develop a collaborative relationship with organizations, agencies and individuals concerned with delivery of health care.